AMAZING GRACE

G  D  A7

G  D  G
Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound,  A7
That saved a wretch like me,  D  G  D
I once was lost but now I'm found,  A7  D
Was blind but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my heart relieved,
How precious did that grace appear,
The hour I first believed.

Thru' many dangers, toils and snares,
I have already come,
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

When We've been there ten thousand years
Bright shining as the sun
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun.

Zip-a-dee doo-dah, zip-a-dee-ay

40 YEARS ON AN ICEBERG

40 years on an iceberg
out in the ocean wide,
Nothing to wear but pyjamas,
nothing to do but slide,
The weather was cold and icy,
The frost began to bite,
I had to hug a polar bear
to keep me warm at night!
WORMS

Nobody loves me, everybody hates me
Think I’ll go and eat worms,
Long thin skinny ones, short fat juicy ones,
Watch them wriggle and squirm.

You bite their heads off, suck their guts out
Throw their skins away
And nobody knows how well we’ll live
On worms three times a day.

Long thin skinny ones slip down easily
Big fat juicy ones stick,
Hold your head back, squeeze their tail
And the juice goes click, click, click.

YOU ARE MY SUNSHINE

A A7
You are my sunshine, my only sunshine
D
You make me happy when skies are gray
A
You’ll never know dear, how much I love you
E7 A
Please don’t take my sunshine away

The other night dear, as I lay sleeping
I dreamed I held you in my arms
But when I awoke dear, I was mistaken
And I hung my head and cried

I’ll always love you and make you happy,
If you will only say the same,
But if you leave me to love another,
You’ll regret it all some day.

You told me once, dear, you really loved me,
And no one else could come between.
But now you’ve left me and love another,
You have shattered all my dreams.

THE CAMP LEADER’S SONG
(Tune: Mr. Sandman)

Hey, Group Leader, bring us a dream
Please bring us children who never scream,
Please make them listen and make them polite
And have them go to sleep when we turn out the light
Hey, Group Leader, I’m never alone, a'nt got no bedroom to call my own
so please turn on your flashlight beam
Hey, Group Leader, bring us a dream.

Hey, Group Leader, I've had enough
I'm going crazy, I need a day off
We've had two tick bites and lots of mosquitos
And I can't get these kids to change their clothes
Hey, Group Leader, one wet the bed
Another one's sick with a pain in her head.
One's got poison ivy, one wants to go home
And this one's hair really needs a comb

Hey, Group Leader, (yessssss),
The tents are a mess
These kids are horrors and they want my address
I'd send them all home if I could
But they love it here in the bush

CANADIAN VESPERS
Tune: Oh Christmas Tree

Softly falls the light of day,
as our campfire fades away
Silently each Scout should ask,
have I done my daily task?
Have I kept my honour bright,
will I guiltless sleep tonight?
Have I done and have I dared,
everything to be prepared?

Where I'm goin’, I hope there's fun
Not to worry, the monsoon come.

CLEMENTINE

D
In a cavern, in a canyon
Excavating for a mine
Lived a miner forty-niner
And his daughter, Clementine

Refrain:
D
Oh, my darling, oh, my darling
You are lost and gone forever
Dreadful sorry, Clementine

D
Light she was, and like a fairy,
And her shoes were number nine,
Herring boxes without topses,
Sandals were for Clementine.

D
Drove she ducklings to the water,
Ev'ry morning just at nine,
Hit her foot against a splinter,
Fell into the foaming brine.

Ruby lips above the water,
Blowing bubbles soft and fine,
But alas, I was no swimmer,
Neither was my Clementine.

D
In a churchyard near the canyon,
Where the myrtle boughs entwine,
Grow the roses in their posies,
Fertilised by Clementine.

D
Then, the miner, forty-niner,
Soon began to fret and pine,
Thought he oughter join his daughter,
So he's now with Clementine.

D
In my dreams she still doth haunt me,
Robed in garments soaked with brine,
Then she rises from the waters,
And I kiss my Clementine.

D
How I missed her, how I missed her,
How I missed my Clementine,
Til I kissed her little sister,
And forgot my Clementine.
Cockles and Mussels

In Dublin's fair city, where the girls are so pretty,
I first set my eyes on sweet Molly Malone,
As she pushed her wheel barrow, Through streets broad and narrow,
Crying cockles and mussels alive, alive, Oh!

Chorus:

Alive, alive, Oh! Alive, alive, Oh!
Crying cockles and mussels alive, alive, Oh!

She was a fishmonger, but it sure was no wonder,
For so were her father and mother before,
And they each pushed their wheel-barrow,
Crying cockles and mussels alive, alive, Oh!

She died of a fever, and no one could save her,
And that was the end of sweet Molly Malone;
Her ghost wheels her barrow,
Crying cockles and mussels alive, alive, Oh!

Tom the Toad

Tune: Oh Christmas Tree

Chorus:

Oh Tom the toad, Oh Tom the toad,
Why did you go out on the road?
You were my friend and now you're dead
You wear the mark of tire tread (Chorus)

You did not see the coming car
And now you're stretched out on the tar (Chorus)

You hopped out to the yellow line
And now you're just a streak of slime (Chorus)

Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star

Twinkle, twinkle little star
How I wonder what you are
Up above the sky so bright
Like a diamond in the night
Twinkle, twinkle little star
How I wonder what you are
And get to Morrow by tonight, if there is no delay?"
"Well, well," said he to me, "and I've got no more to say;
Can't get anywhere tomorrow and get back again today!"

Said I, "I guess you know it all, but kindly let me say:
How can I get to Morrow if I leave this town today?
Said he, "You can not go to Morrow any more today,
For the train that goes to Morrow is a mile upon its way."

I was so disappointed I was mad enough to swear;
The train had gone to Morrow, and had left me standing there.
That man was right in telling me I was a howling jay;
I could not go to Morrow, so I guess in town I'll stay.

For I'll be blowed, if I'll be stowed,
On a bicycle built for two.

TO MORMOR

C G7 F D7 Dm7 A E

C
I started on a journey,
F C
about a year ago
D7 G7
To a little town called "Morrow" in the state of Ohio.
I've never been much of a traveler,
F C
and I really didn't know
F C
That Morrow was the hardest place I'd ever try to go.
G7 C
So I went down to the station for my ticket and applied
F C
Said I, "My friend, I'd like to go to Morrow and return
G7 C
No later than tomorrow, for I haven't time to burn."

Said he to me, "Now let me see if I have heard you right:
You'd like to go to Morrow and and return tomorrow night?
You should have gone to Morrow yesterday and back today,
For the train that goes to Morrow is a mile upon its way.

If you had gone to Morrow yesterday, now don't you see,
You could have gone to Morrow and returned today at three;
For the train today to Morrow, if the schedule is right,
Today it goes to Morrow and returns tomorrow night.

Said I, "My friend, it seems to me you're talking through your hat;
There is a town named 'Morrow' on the line, now tell me that!
"There is," said he, "but take from me a quiet little tip:
To go from here to Morrow is a fourteen-hour trip.

The train today to Morrow leaves today at eight thirty-five,
At half past ten tomorrow is the time it should arrive.
So if from here to Morrow is a fourteen-hour jump,
Can you go today to Morrow and get back today, you chump?"

Said I, "I'd like to go to Morrow, but can't I go today
Now Grandfather Brown's hair was all falling out
He went to the barber and started to shout
"Oh please is there something to keep my hair in?"
"Of course" said the barber, "Why not use a tin?"

My old friend Big Jim had a watch made of gold
One day he swallowed it, so I am told
Now he takes Epsom Salts three times a day
And he just sits while time passes away.

The butcher was cleaning the back of his shop
He paused for a moment to lean on his mop
He sat on the slicing machine with a jerk
And then found he got all behind in his work.

A fellow I know ate a packet of seeds
And in a few weeks he was covered in weeds
But sadder to say, as the time came to pass
He found that he couldn't sit down on his grass.

A fellow named Humphrey went down to the sea
He was changing his swimmers behind a big tree
A dog chased him out and the people did stare
And the kids all yelled "Look Mum, there's Humphrey B Bear."

BACKGROUND: During the 1st World Jamboree, B-P was looking for a song that everyone could sing no matter what their language was. Ging Gang Gooli was the result.

The Story of Ging Gang Gooli

In deepest darkest Africa there is a legend concerning the Great Grey Ghost Elephant. Every year after the rains, the great grey ghost elephant arose from the mists and wandered through the land at dawn. When he came to a village he would stop and sniff the air, then he would either go around the village or through it. If he went around the village they would have a prosperous year, if he went through the village there would be hunger and drought.

The village of Wat-Cha had been visited 3 years in a row by the elephant and things were very bad indeed. The village leader, Ging-Ganga was very worried, as was the medicine man Hayla-Shay. Together they decided to do something about the problem. Now, Ging-Ganga and his warriors were huge men with big shields and spears. They decided to stand in the way of the elephant and shake their shields and spears at it to frighten it away. Hayla-Shay was going to cast magic spells to deter the elephant by shaking their medicine bags as the elephant approached, which made the sound shalli-walli shalli-walli shalli-walli.

Very early in the morning of the day the Great Grey Ghost Elephant came, the villagers gathered at the edge of the village. On one side were Ging-Ganga and his warriors (indicate that group) and on the other side was Hayla-Shay and his followers (indicate that group). As they waited the warriors sang softly about their leader Ging gang gooli gooli gooli gooli watch-a ging gang goo, ging gang goo (and repeat). As they waited, the medicine men sang of their leader Hayla, hayla-shayla, hayla-shayla, hayla oh etc. And they shook their medicine bags shalli-walli shalli-walli shalli-walli.

And from the river came the Great Grey Ghost Elephants reply oompah oompah oompah oompah. The great elephant came closer, so the warriors beat their shields and sang louder (stand, clap and beat thighs in time) ging gang gooli etc. Then the medicine men arose and sang loudly (stand and do same action) hayla hayla-shayla etc. And they shook their medicine bags shalli-wally etc.

And the mighty elephant turned aside and went around the village saying oompah oompah oompah oompah. There was great rejoicing in the village and all people came together to sing... (now put the whole song together with the elephants chanting oompah. Change sides so singers now do oompahs).

The story “The Great Grey Ghost Elephant” was written by Dorothy Unterschutz, a Scouter from Edmonton, Canada. It was first published in 1991.

SWEET VIOLETS

There once was a farmer who took a young Miss
In back of a barn where he gave her a
Lecture on horses, chickens, and eggs.
And told her that she had such beautiful
Manners that suited a girl of her charms,
A girl that he wanted to take in his
Washing and ironing, then if she did,
They could get married and raise lots of...

Chorus:

Sweet violets. Sweeter than all the roses.
Covered all over from head to toe.
Covered all over with sweet violets.

The girl told the farmer that he'd better stop
Or he'd call his father, and he'd call a Taxi which got there before very long.
'Cause someone was doing his little girl
Right for a change and so that's why he said
If you marry her, son, you're better off Single, 'cause that's always been my belief.
Marriage will leave a man nothing but...

The farmer decided to wed anyway
And started out planning for his wedding
Suit which he purchased for only one buck,
But when he got there he was just out of Money and so he got left in the lurch,
Standing and waiting in front of the End of the story which just goes to show
All a girl wants from a man is his...

He had ten thousand men.

And marched them down again.

But when you're only half way up,
You're neither up nor down.

Actions: Every time you sing the word "up", stand up.
When you sing the word "down", sit down. On "half-way up", stand up with knees bent. Repeat the song a number of times, getting faster. To totally confuse everyone, reverse the actions (e.g. sit down on "up", stand up on "down"!)

He led the others with a quack, quack, quack

Variation: Bear in Tennis Shoes

The other day (echo)
I met a bear (echo)
In tennis shoes (echo)
A very fine pair (echo)
The other day I met a bear
In tennis shoes, a very fine pair.

He looked at me, I looked at him.
He sized up me, I sized up him...
He says to me, Why don't you run?
I see you ain't got any gun...
And so I ran away from there,
But right behind me was that bear...

Ahead of me, there was a tree
A great big tree, O lucky me...
The nearest branch was ten feet up.
I'd have to jump and trust my luck...
And so I jumped into the air,
but I missed that branch away up there...

Now don't you fret and don't you frown,
'Cause I caught that branch on the way back down...
The moral of this little news:
Don't talk to bears in tennis shoes..
That's all there is There ain't no more.

Variation: The Littlest Worm

The littlest worm       I took a sip
I ever saw              and he went down

He said to me
Don't take a sip
Cause if you do
I'll surely slip

I took a sip
and he went down
Right through my pipes
He must have drowned

I burped him up
and he was dead
I buried him
in a flower bed

He was my pal
He was my friend
And now he's gone
And that's the end

So joyously it calls to me, “Come! Join my happy song”
I wave my hat to all I meet, and they wave back to me
And blackbirds call so loud and sweet, From every greenwood tree.
I love to wander by the stream that dances in the sun
So joyously it calls to me “come jon my happy song”
High overhead the skylarks wing, they never rest at home
But just like me they love to sing as o’er the world we roam.
Oh may I go a-wandering until the day I die
Oh may I always laugh and sing beneath God’s clear blue sky.

HEY LOLLEE

(This is the classic campfire song for which you make up verses as you go)

Hey Lollee, lollee,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.
Hey Lollee, lollee,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.

This is a crazy kind of song,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.
You make it up as you go along,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.

When calypso singers sing this song,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.
It sometimes lasts the whole day long,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.

First you invent a simple rhyme,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.
Then another one to rhyme,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.

While you catch on I'll sing a verse,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.
Then you do one that's even worse,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.

I know a boy named Sammy--C,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.
He sings "Hey Lollee" in just one key,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.

Tonight we've chosen another key,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.
You won't be hearing from Sammy--C,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.

He sings "Hey Lollee" day and night,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.
It never seems to come out right,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.

I know a man name Mr. Jones,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.
When he sings, everybody groans,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.

The singer you fast the getter it's tuff,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.
To line up makes that you won't muff,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.

Let's put this song back on the shelf,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.
If you want anymore you can sing it yourself,
Hey Lollee, lollee, lo.

D A7 D
And the skies are not cloudy all day.

Where the air is so pure, and the zephyrs so free,
The breezes so balmy and light,
That I would not exchange my home on the range,
For all of the cities so bright.

How often at night when the heavens are bright,
With the light from the glittering stars,
Have I stood there amazed and asked as I gazed,
If their glory exceeds that of ours.

Oh, I love these wild flowers in this dear land of ours,
The curlew I love to hear cry,
And I love the white rocks and the antelope flocks,
That graze on the mountain slopes high.

Oh give me a land where the bright diamond sand,
Flows leisurely down in the stream;
Where the graceful white swan goes gliding along,
Like a maid in a heavenly dream.

Then I would not exchange my home on the range,
Where the deer and the antelope play;
Where seldom is heard a discouraging word,
And the skies are not cloudy all day.

ON TOP OF OLD SMOKEY

On top of old Smokey, all covered with snow, I lost my true lover from courting too slow.

Now, courting is pleasure and parting is grief, And a false-hearted lover is worse than a thief.

For a thief will just rob you and take what you have, But a false-hearted lover will lead you to the grave.

And the grave will decay you and turn you to dust; Not one boy in a hundred a poor girl can trust.

They'll hug you and kiss you and tell you more lies, Than cross ties on a railroad or stars in the skies.

So, come all you young maidens and listen to me, Never place your affection on a green willow tree.

For the leaves they will whither, and the roots they will die, You'll all be forsaken and never know why.

I had a dream the other night, when everything was still;
I thought I saw Susanna dear, a coming down the hill.
A buckwheat cake was in her mouth, a tear was in her eye,
Says I, I'm coming from the south, Susanna, don't you cry.
I soon will be in New Orleans, and then I'll look around,
And when I find Susanna, I'll fall upon the ground.
But if I do not find her, then I will surely die,
And when I'm dead and buried, Oh, Susanna, don't you cry.

My uncle was hiding from tigers
When pepper got into his nose.
He knew that the tigers were hungry
So he tried not to sneeze, but he snooze.

My uncle made friends with hyenas.
They gave him a ride on his raft.
When the crocodiles reached up and grabbed him,
The hyenas just sat there and laughed.

My uncle once fell in a pothole
In a glacier while climbing an Alp.
He’s still there after fifty long winters
But all you can see is his scalp.

When my uncle annoyed his dear parents,
They threw him right off of the bus!
And if we keep singing this song
Why, that’s what will happen to us.

Variation: Bring Back My Neighbour To Me

One night as I lay on my pillow
One night as I lay on my bed
I stuck my feet out of the window
And now all my neighbours are dead.

Chorus
Bring back, bring back
Oh bring back my neighbour to me (repeat)

My cat is the size of a tiger
He sharpens his teeth on a tree
He sharpened his teeth on my neighbour
Oh bring back my neighbour to me. (Chorus)

My neighbour looked into the gas tank
But nothing therein could he see
I struck up a match to assist him
Oh bring back my neighbour to me. (Chorus)
